June Luncheon Speaker—

DAVID A. WORTHY, MD

Vice President and Chief Medical Officer Baptist Health Corbin

David A. Worthy, MD, is vice president and chief medical officer of Baptist Health Corbin, a 273-bed hospital serving residents of Whitley, Knox, Laurel, Bell, Jackson, Clay, McCreary and Harlan counties in Kentucky and Jellico, Tenn.

Dr. Worthy practiced family medicine for 11 years, followed by emergency medicine for 11 years, in southeastern Kentucky before joining the Baptist Health Corbin leadership team in 2012.

Prior to joining Baptist Health, Dr. Worthy was the chief executive officer of Grace Community Health Center. He was instrumental in securing the center's status as a federally qualified health center and as the first of these in the nation to receive meaningful use money. In 2010 and 2011, Dr. Worthy was a finalist for the Excellence in Entrepreneurship Award for a not-for-profit entity in southern and eastern Kentucky, an award given by Eastern Kentucky University, the Center for Rural Development and Kentucky Highlands Investment Corporation.

Dr. Worthy graduated from Oral Roberts University, and completed his internship and residency at Dwight D. Eisenhower Army Medical Center. He was an attending physician at a family medicine residency program for four years before moving to Kentucky to join a private practice in Barbourville. He and his family served at Kijabe Medical Centre in Kenya for a year in 2000.

Hello, my name is Trish Humphrey, I've worked for the Times-Tribune for 31 years, wearing many hats during these years. I worked in the Circulation Department for a short time, then I moved to our Classified department, moving onto our Accounting department and now, Advertising Sales/Recruitment Specialist and Bookkeeper for the Times-Tribune and Sentinel-Echo. I live in Corbin and have resided there for over 48 years.

As an Advertising Sales/Recruitment Specialist I do many things such as assisting local businesses with their recruitment. Help wanted ads, and a few times a year we have an employment guide that has great articles about interviews and employment. Any business needing a classified ad I assist with their needs. As a sales person I love to know I am helping the businesses I care for. On top of those responsibilities, I assist businesses with their everyday advertising. Whether it's weekly newspaper ads, magazines, or special sections, I can assist with it all. I also assist with political advertising. During the month of June, I have a few special sections: the Flag Day page & summer activity page. Our special sections are viewable on our websites for a year! The ads in the sections are clickable and link to the advertiser's website or Facebook. Our website reaches all Kentucky, as well as our neighboring states. I am here to help your business grow and thrive! If you have any questions or would like more information please email me or give me a call!
